

MULTI-MEMBER MEMBER-MANAGED LLC OPERATING AGREEMENT

This document is an operating agreement contract template for LLCs that

- Have more than one owner (i.e. a “member”);
- Are a “member-managed LLC”;
- Are formed in the State of Nebraska; and
- Are taxed as a partnership (the default).

This resource does not create an attorney-client relationship. While this template and the corresponding information cover basic and common terms that apply to most businesses, it is impossible to address every situation that can arise -- some attorneys can do that. But, we can't guarantee this template is exactly what you need for your business.

By downloading and using this template, you acknowledge that you have read and agree to our Terms of Use.

ARTICLE 5 Accounting, Books and Records

No audit of Company books and records will be required unless a member requests the same and agrees to pay the cost of the audit.

ARTICLE 6

Non-Disclosure, Non-Solicitation, and Assignment of Intellectual Property

- 6.1 Non-Disclosure. If there are two or more members of the Company, each member acknowledges that they may establish favorable relations with the Company's customers, clients and accounts, and will have access to correspondence, records, forms, manuals, leads, methods, financial data, and other confidential matters of the Company. Each member agrees that all confidential accounts, information, and business opportunities, even if originated by that member, remain the exclusive property and confidential information of the Company. Consequently, each member agrees that while they remain a member of the Company and at all times after termination as a member they will not: disclose, use for their own account, or in any manner reveal to any person, firm, company or corporation any customer, vendor or pricing lists, accounts, forms, manuals, documents, correspondence, records, methods, financial data, business secrets, or other confidential matter used or obtained by the member, or conveyed to or made available to them, in connection with their relationship to the Company.
- 6.2 Non-Solicitation. If there are two or more members, each member further agrees that while they remain a member of the Company and for a period of _____ years after termination as a member of the Company, they will not, either directly or indirectly, for the member's own purposes or purposes of another:
- solicit any employee of the Company for the purpose of hiring that employee;
 - solicit or accept any business which competes with Company's business, from persons or entities that were customers or potential customers of Company at any time during the member's membership in the Company. The term "customer" means any person or entity to whom Company has sold any good or service within the _____ years prior to the member's termination as a member of the Company. The term "potential customer" means any person or entity during the same _____ year period who has: (a) been involved in negotiations or discussions with Company for any good or service sold by

Company; (b) been the subject of personal contacts by the member and/or any other member or employee of the Company for purposes of soliciting business for the Company; or (3) been the subject of Company's efforts to gather, learn or evaluate information which may help Company obtain any future order from such person or entity.

- 6.3 Relief. Members recognize and agree that any violation of the non-disclosure and non-solicitation agreements set forth in paragraphs 6.1 or 6.2 above, either while the member remains a member of the Company or after termination as a member of the Company, will cause irreparable harm to the Company. In the event that a member, at any time during or after his term as a member of the Company, violates or threatens to violate any of the covenants contained in paragraphs 6.1 or 6.2 above, the Company and each of its members, will have the right to enforcement of this Agreement by means of an injunction, restraining order, money damages, and any other available legal remedy. The violating member further agrees to pay the Company for any and all attorneys' fees and costs incurred by the Company in pursuing judicial enforcement of this Agreement.
- 6.4 Assignment of Intellectual Property. As consideration for the member's interest in and participation in the Company, the member sells, transfers, assigns and conveys, to the Company, and its successors and assigns, the Purchaser's entire right, title and interest in Intellectual Property Rights as set forth in the Intellectual Property Contribution and Assignment Agreement in the form attached to this Agreement as Exhibit B.

ARTICLE 7 Transfer of Interests

- 7.1 Sale or Assignment of Interest. A member's interest in the Company may be sold or assigned first to the another members of the Company in proportion to their membership interests, and second to a third party with the written consent of all remaining members provided that the sale or assignment would not entitle any creditor of the Company to declare a default on the terms of any credit extended to the Company ("Default Restriction"). The offer to purchase must be made in writing, set forth the purchase price and other material terms of the proposed sale or assignment and delivered to each member of the Company ("Offer Notice").
- 7.2 Expulsion of a Member. Any member may be immediately expelled for cause upon a unanimous vote of the remaining members at a meeting called for that purpose. "For cause" as defined in this Article means an intentional breach of this Agreement, bad faith, or wanton or willful misconduct. In the event a member is expelled, the member will be deemed to have granted the remaining members an option to purchase the expelled member's interest for the value determined in Article 8.2 of this Agreement, as of the date of expulsion. Notice of the expulsion will be given to the expelled member as provided in Article 11 of this Agreement. In the event the other members do not elect to acquire the expelled member's interest, the expelled member will, as of the Expulsion date: (1) automatically cease to be a member (as that term is used in this Agreement and under the Act), and (2) have only the rights of an assignee in accordance with the Act.
- 7.3 Transfer Without Notice. Notwithstanding Section 7.1 but subject to the Default Restriction in Article 7.1, a member may transfer his/her interest in the Company or any part of such interest to: (1) a revocable inter vivos trust naming the member as trustee for the benefit of the member, his or her spouse and/or descendants; or (2) an immediate family member, defined as a surviving spouse, child, grandchild, sister, brother and/or parent, by operation of law or by testamentary or other disposition upon such member's death.
- Upon the death of a member whose interests have been transferred in such manner, the transferee will not become a member of the Company and will have only the rights of an assignee under the Act. The transferee will receive a buy-out in accordance with Article 8.2 of this Agreement. If such disposition is to other than an immediate family member or such trust, such disposition will be void and of no effect.
- 7.4 Disability of a Member.
- (1) In the event of a disability of a member (as defined below), the member ("Affected Member") will be deemed to have granted the Company and the other members an option to purchase the disabled member's interest for the value as determined in Article 8.2 of this Agreement, as of the date of disability.

Notice of the disability determination will be given to the disabled member as provided in Article 11 of this Agreement. In the event the other members or the Company do not elect to acquire the disabled member's interest, the Affected Member will, as of the date of disability, (1) automatically cease to be a member (as that term is used in this Agreement and under the Act), and (2) have only the rights of an assignee in accordance with the Act.

- (2) A member will have a "Disability" if the member has a physical and/or mental condition which prevents him or her from effectively and actively carrying out his or her duties and obligations under this Agreement. A member will be deemed to have a Disability if the Affected Member and other members collectively holding more than _____ percent (____) ownership interests in the Company agree that he or she has a Disability.
- (3) In the absence of such an agreement, a member may notify another member that they believe the Affected Member to have a Disability. Within _____ days of the notice, a board of _____ qualified physicians (by a majority vote) will determine whether or not in their opinion the Affected Member has a disability. The determination will be made in writing and delivered to the Company and the Affected Member.

The _____ qualified physicians will be selected in the following manner: The Affected Member and the other members collectively holding more than _____ percent (____) ownership interest in the Company will each select one physician within _____ days after the receipt of the notice, and the two physicians selected will select a third physician. If the Affected Member fails to select a physician within _____ business days after notice is given, the other members will select a physician. If the other members fail to select a physician within _____ business days after notice is given, the Affected Member will select a physician. If the two physicians selected fail to agree on a third physician within _____ days, then a Judge of the city or county court of the jurisdiction where the Company's primary office is located will select a third physician. The Affected Member agrees to submit to any examination by each of the board of qualified physicians, and all costs of the examination will be paid by the Company. The determination made pursuant to the foregoing procedure will be controlling on all parties for purposes of this Agreement.

- (4) The date on which an Affected Member is deemed to have a Disability will be the date on which (a) the parties agree that the Affected Member is disabled, or (b) a board of qualified physicians determines, in their opinion, that the Affected Member is disabled.

ARTICLE 8 Deceased or Dissociated Members

8.1 Dissociation of a Member. The withdrawal, resignation, retirement, disability, expulsion, or bankruptcy of a member will terminate the membership of the member in the Company. Such a member will be deemed a "dissociated member."

8.2 Compensation of Deceased or Dissociated Members.

- (1) If the death or dissociation of a member causes the dissolution and termination of the Company (as provided in Article 10 below or under the Act), a dissociated member, or the estate or legal representative of a deceased member, will be entitled to participate in the winding up and liquidation of the Company to the same extent as a member.
- (2) If the death or dissociation of a member does not cause the dissolution and termination of the Company, a dissociated member, or the estate or legal representative of a deceased member, will be entitled to buy-out compensation in an amount equal to the following:

- i. The capital account of the deceased or dissociated member, as of the date of death or dissociation,
- ii. Increased or decreased by the member's share of Company profits or losses for the portion of the Company's current fiscal year ending on the date of the member's death or dissociation,
- iii. Increased by the fair market value of all Company assets as set forth in Section 8.2(c),
- iv. Decreased by any debt the dissociated member owed the Company as of the date of the date of dissociation but without acceleration of the payment of any other debts owed to the dissociated member by the Company, and
- v. Decreased by any damages sustained by the Company as a result of any expulsion or wrongful dissociation by a dissociated member.

No allowance will be made for goodwill or other intangible assets except as those assets have been reflected in the Company books immediately prior to the death or dissociation of the member.

- (3) The fair market value of Company assets will be determined by: (a) agreement of the remaining members and the dissociated member or deceased member's estate or legal representative (the "Parties"); (b) or if they cannot reach agreement, then by an independent appraiser. The fair market value of any assets will be reduced by the amount of liabilities encumbering any said assets on the specified valuation date. If an independent appraiser is required, the appraiser will be agreed upon and retained by the Parties within _____ days of the date of death or dissociation. The appraiser will submit a copy of his or her written appraisal to the Parties within _____ days of from the date the appraiser is retained. The dissociated member or deceased member's estate or legal representative will pay the cost of the appraiser. In the event the Parties cannot reach agreement on the selection of an independent appraiser within _____ days from the date of dissociation or death, then the Parties will each select and retain an independent appraiser within _____ days from the date of dissociation or death, with each party to pay the cost of their own appraiser, notwithstanding any other provisions of this Agreement. The two (2) appraisers so named will then each submit a copy of their written appraisals to the Parties within _____ days from the date the appraisers are retained. The average of the two appraisals will be binding on Parties as the fair market value of the subject assets. Should the dissociated member or deceased member's legal representative or trustee fail to select and retain an appraiser as provided in this sub-section, the remaining members may select and retain an appraiser at the dissociated or deceased member's expense and the appraiser's valuation of the assets will be binding on the Parties.
- (4) The remaining members will have the right to purchase the dissociated or deceased member's interest in pro rata shares in the ratio each electing purchasing member's ownership percentage bears to the aggregate ownership percentages of all purchasing members. If the remaining members do not elect to purchase the interest, the Company will pay the compensation due for the dissociated or deceased member's interest. The amount payable under this Article will be paid to the dissociated member, or to the estate or legal representative of a deceased member, in not more than ten (10) semi-annual installments with annual interest at the prime rate as determined by the Wall Street Journal on the date each payment is due, beginning not more than (12) months after the date of the death or dissociation.
- (5) If there is more than one member, each member of the Company will obtain key-man life insurance in an amount sufficient to pay compensation due for a deceased member's interest under Article 8.2.

8.3 Release from Liability. In the event of a member's dissociation from the Company, the Company agrees to use its best efforts to release and discharge the dissociated member from any and all liabilities, duties, and responsibilities from the Company's debt and obligations, including, but not limited to, any notes, instruments payable, lines of credit, equipment leases and real property leases.

ARTICLE 9 Indemnification and Limitation of Liability

- 9.1 Indemnification of Members. No member will be liable, responsible, or accountable in damages or otherwise to the Company or to the members for any action taken or failure to act on behalf of the Company unless the action or omission was an intentional breach of this Agreement or constituted gross negligence, bad faith, or wanton or willful misconduct (collectively “Misconduct”). Except with respect to Misconduct, the Company will, to the fullest extent permitted under the Act, indemnify and hold harmless the members from any loss, damage, liability, or expense incurred or sustained by them by reason of any act performed or any omission for or on behalf of the Company, including any judgment, award, settlement, reasonable attorneys’ fees, and other costs and expenses (which may be advanced by the Company), incurred in connection with the defense of any actual or threatened action, proceeding, or claim.
- 9.2 Indemnification of Company by Members. Each member agrees to indemnify and hold the Company and every other member harmless from any liability, cost, or damage that any indemnified party may incur (including reasonable legal and other expenses incurred in defending against such liability, cost, or damage) as a result of the indemnifying member’s Misconduct. No amount paid under this provision will be treated as a capital contribution by the member making the payment.
- 9.3 Liability for Company Debts and Obligations. No member will be personally liable for any of the expenses, liabilities, or obligations of the Company except to the extent expressly provided in this Agreement, or in an agreement executed by such member evidencing his or her agreement to be personally liable for any expense, liability, or obligation.

ARTICLE 10

The members will have the authority to continue to conduct the business and affairs of the Company after dissolution to the extent reasonably necessary to effect an orderly and profitable winding up of the Company’s business and affairs.

A member appointed by a vote of members collectively holding a majority interest in the Company (the “Winding Up Member”), will be responsible for overseeing the winding up and liquidation of the Company. The Winding Up Member will take full account of the Company’s liabilities and the business property, cause the Business Property to be liquidated as promptly as is consistent with obtaining the fair value of the property, and will cause the proceeds and any other assets and funds of the Company (collectively, the “Dissolution Proceeds”), to the extent they are sufficient, to be applied and distributed in the following order:

- (1) First, to the payment of all unpaid secured indebtedness of the Company to the extent of the lesser of the value of the secured property or the amount of the secured indebtedness;

- (2) Second, to the payment of the Company's then outstanding indebtedness with respect to which any member is subject to personal liability as a guarantor or under a master lease or similar agreement, but if the amount available will be insufficient, then on a pro rata basis;
- (3) Third, to the payment of the Company's remaining indebtedness (excluding liabilities for distributions to members), but if the amount available will be insufficient, then on a pro rata basis;
- (4) Fourth, return of any positive capital account balance to each member;
- (5) Fifth, the balance, if any, will be distributed to the members pro rata in accordance with their ownership percentages.

10.3 Liquidation and Termination. Upon dissolution of the Company, the Company will continue solely for the purpose of winding up its affairs in an orderly manner, liquidating its assets, and satisfying claims of its creditors and members and no member will take any action that is inconsistent with, or not necessary to, winding up the Company's business and affairs. To the extent not inconsistent with this provision, all covenants and obligations in this Agreement will continue in full force and effect until the time the dissolution proceeds have been distributed pursuant to Article 10.1 and the Company has filed articles of termination.
